Homerville Wholesale Produce Auction is licensed by the State of Ohio.

This sales agreement covers the period from May 8, 2013 through Dec 31,2013.

This agreement is mandatory. You must sign this agreement before selling any thing at the auction. Turn in the white copy to the office. Keep the yellow copy. You will not be paid if you do not sign a sales agreement. One signed copy each year is enough.

Commission is 9% for lots selling for $100.00 or more. Commission is 10% on all lots selling for less than $100.00. All lots are charged an additional 50 cents per tag.

Description of property covered by this agreement: farm produce, vegetables, live plants, flowers, produce, farm made crafts, and agriculture tools and equipment.

Any item that you grow or make is covered by this agreement. Any item with an agriculture use or farm home use is covered by this agreement.

If any buyer gives the auction a bad check or leaves without paying, the consigner will be paid.

This is an absolute auction. Once an item is placed in the rows it is pledged to absolute sale. Do not ever bid on your own item!

The State of Ohio's definition of an absolute auction is as follows:
(1) The property is sold to the highest bidder without reserve.
(2) The auction does not require a minimum bid.
(3) The auction does not require competing bids of any type by the seller or an agent of the seller.
(4) The seller of the property cannot withdraw the property from auction after the auction is opened and there is public solicitation or calling for bids.

Consigners that have registered for a grower number thereby indicate that they understand the terms and conditions. The terms and conditions are clearly posted above the cashier's window and are also to the left on this page. Any terms and conditions announced during the auction take precedent over the posted rules.

The consigner agrees to transfer ownership to the highest bidder.

The auction company reserves the right to accept absentee bids.
